

Study of New Magnetic Resonance Imaging Methods of the Brain

NCT00004577

Status	RECRUITING
Sponsor	National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS)
Enrollment	1,100 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- years of age and older
- in good general health
- able to understand the procedures and requirements and give informed consent

Exclusion (17)

- All Subjects will undergo a neurological physical and answer the Healthy volunteer form, and the most-recent version of the NMR safety screening form
- A subject will be excluded if he/she:
 - has any metal implant or objects of unknown identity or composition, or if it s known to be non-compatible with MRI, such as pacemakers, medication pumps, aneurysm clips, metallic prosthesis (such as heart valves or cochlear implants), certain orthopedic implants (pins and rods), shrapnel, or small metal fragments in the eye;
 - has claustrophobia;
 - cannot lie comfortably for up to 120 minutes;
- ... and 12 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

National Institutes of Health Clinical Center, Bethesda, Maryland, United States