

A Natural History Study of Bone and Mineral Disorders

NCT00024804

Status	RECRUITING
Sponsor	National Institute of Dental and Craniofacial Research (NIDCR)
Enrollment	1,000 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- The study population will include participants with known or suspected bone disease and/or with a known or suspected disorder of mineral metabolism. To be eligible to participate in this study, an individual must meet all of the following criteria:
- Age 1 day of life or older
- Have a known or suspected bone disease, as demonstrated by any one of the following: a fracture, or abnormal bone findings on x-ray, CT scan, MRI, or bone densitometry, and/or a medical or family history consistent with or suggestive of a bone disease.
- Have a known or suspected disorder of mineral metabolism, as demonstrated by any one of the following: laboratory measurement above or below the reference values for either blood or urine calcium, phosphorus, magnesium, parathyroid hormone or vitamin D, or other measures of mineral metabolism, and/or a medical or family history consistent with or suggestive of a disorder of mineral metabolism.

Exclusion (1)

- \. Participants unwilling or unable to abide by procedures of protocol.

Locations (1 total)

National Institutes of Health Clinical Center, Bethesda, Maryland, United States