

Efficacy of Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine (OMM) and Phototherapy for Patients With Chronic Lower Back Pain

NCT01765777

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	New York Institute of Technology
Enrollment	48 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Age range: 18 - 65 years old
- Subjects with constant or intermittent nonspecific lower back pain for a minimum of three (3) months duration.

Exclusion (9)

- Prospective subjects with a diagnosis of the following potential underlying causes of lower back pain: ankylosing spondylitis, cancer or a history of a histologically demonstrated malignant carcinoma, cauda equine syndrome, herniated disc, spinal fracture, or spinal osteomyelitis.
- Prospective subjects who have undergone surgery of the lower back in the preceding three (3) months.
- Prospective subjects who have received worker's compensation in the preceding three (3) months, or are involved in litigation involving concerns of lower back.
- Prospective subjects who are pregnant.
- Prospective subjects who have been a patient receiving any osteopathic manipulative medicine (OMM) treatment at the clinical trial site in the previous three (3) months, or on greater than three (3) occasions in the preceding year.

... and 4 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

New York Institute of Technology, Old Westbury, New York, United States