

One-year Clinical Evaluation of Bulk-fill Versus Conventional Incremental Posterior Restoration by FDI Criteria

NCT02891967

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Cairo University
Enrollment	69 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (1)

- Good oral hygiene. Patients must show no signs of orofacial pain. The presence of molar teeth requiring composite restorations for the treatment of primary carious lesions

Exclusion (1)

- Teeth with abnormal periapical anatomy or caries that will be likely to result in very deep restorations. Teeth with old restorations or severely destructed dental crowns. Temporo-mandibular joint problems involving symptomatic pain. Pregnancy or breast feeding, acute and chronic systemic diseases, immune-compromised patients

Locations (1 total)

Mary, Cairo, Cairo Governorate, Egypt