

TMS for Complex Regional Pain Syndrome

NCT03137472

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Stanford University
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (4)

- Age 18-70
- Diagnosis of CRPS (complex regional pain syndrome) for at least 3 months
- Average pain level reported on Numerical Rating Scale meets entry criteria
- Ability to perform the experimental task and procedures.

Exclusion (8)

- MRI contraindication (metal implants or devices, claustrophobia)
- TMS Contraindication (eg metal implant or devices near the site of stimulation)
- History of epilepsy
- History of a psychological or psychiatric disorder that would interfere with study procedures, at the discretion of the researcher.
- Neurologic illness that would interfere with brain integrity
- ... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Stanford Pain Management Center, Redwood City, California, United States