

Blood Flow Restriction Therapy in Lower Limb Extensor Injuries

NCT04149977

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	NYU Langone Health
Enrollment	128 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Must be at least 18 years of age and younger than 65 years of age
- ASA class I-II
- Diagnosed with a lower limb extensor injury (quadriceps tendon rupture, patella tendon rupture, patella fracture)
- Intention to receive physical therapy as standard of care

Exclusion (11)

- Legally incompetent or mentally impaired (e.g. minors, Alzheimer's subjects, dementia, etc.)
- Younger than 18 years of age or older than 65
- Any patient considered a vulnerable subject
- Patients with impaired circulation, peripheral vascular compromise, previous revascularization of the extremity, or severe hypertension
- Concomitant lower extremity traumatic injuries, delaying or precluding the subject's ability to participate in the therapy
- ... and 6 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

NYU Langone Health, New York, New York, United States