

A Study to Compare Two Different Managements After Ankle Surgery: Immediate and Delayed Weight-bearing.

NCT04429217

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Ente Ospedaliero Cantonale, Bellinzona
Enrollment	100 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (5)

- Male and female adults
- Age ranging from 18 to 70 years, included
- Signed Informed Consent
- Ankle fracture requiring surgical management classified as: 1- Weber A fracture pattern (AO 44.A1, 44.A2, 44.A3) with or without association with a medial or posterior lesion/fracture or 2- Weber B fracture pattern (AO 44.B1, 44.B2, 44.B3) with or without association with a medial or posterior lesion/fracture
- Willingness and ability to participate in the trial

Exclusion (10)

- Weber C fracture pattern
- Bilateral fractures or fractures in other locations
- Maissonneuve associated lesion
- Body Mass Index  $< 18.5$  and  $\geq 30$
- Metabolic diseases influencing fracture healing processes
- ... and 5 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Ente Ospedaliero Cantonale, Lugano, Switzerland