

Antibiotics as Adjuncts to Periodontal Therapy: Pharmacokinetic Considerations and Dosing Strategies

NCT04669717

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 4
Sponsor	University of Geneva, Switzerland
Enrollment	45 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Informed Consent as documented by signature
- Aged 18-80 years old with need of periodontal treatment associated with adjunctive antibiotic therapy
- Presence of at least 30% of the teeth in the mouth with PD > 6mm and BOP

Exclusion (10)

- Persons with systemic illnesses (uncontrolled diabetes mellitus, cancer, human immunodeficiency virus, bone metabolic diseases or disorders that compromise wound healing, radiation, or immunosuppressive therapy)
- Pregnancy or lactation
- Persons who had taken AB within the previous 2 months
- Persons who are taking nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs
- Persons who have a confirmed or suspected intolerance to 5-nitroimidazole derivatives or amoxicillin or macrolides
- ... and 5 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

University of Geneva, University Clinics of Dental Medicine, Geneva, Switzerland