

Effectiveness of High-frequency rTMS in Reducing Alcohol Consumption in Non-abstinent Patients With an Alcohol Use Disorder

NCT04773691

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Centre Hospitalier Universitaire Dijon
Enrollment	144 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (5)

- a person who has given his or her free, written and informed consent
- adult patient
- patient with mild to severe alcohol use disorder according to DSM-5 criteria
- voluntary patient to reduce alcohol consumption
- patient who has already made at least one attempt at alcohol withdrawal (failure or relapse), or at reducing consumption

Exclusion (24)

- person who is not affiliated to or not a beneficiary of national health insurance
- person subject to a legal protection measure (curatorship, guardianship)
- person subject to a legal safeguard measure
- pregnant, parturient or breastfeeding women
- adult unable to express consent
- ... and 19 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Chu Dijon Bourgogne, Dijon, France