

This is a Study to Verify if Periarticular Hip Injection of Corticosteroid After Hip Replacement Reduce the Pain and the Hospitalisation Time

NCT05023369

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 4
Sponsor	Ente Ospedaliero Cantonale, Bellinzona
Enrollment	110 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Patients undergoing unilateral cemented hip endoprosthesis for femoral neck fracture
- Patients aged 50-90 years old
- Patients with a BMI ≥ 18.5 and ≤ 35
- Patients able to provide informed consent and follow all the study procedures as indicated by the protocol
- Informed Consent as documented by signature

Exclusion (13)

- Contraindications to steroids
- Revision endoprosthesis
- Active steroid or immunosuppressive therapy in the last 30 days before the operation
- Pregnant or breast-feeding women
- Presence of other clinically significant concomitant disease states (ASA IV)
- ... and 8 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Christian Candrian, Lugano, Switzerland