

Comparing Different Timings for Periodontal Re-evaluation After Non-surgical Periodontal Therapy (NSPT)

NCT05088746

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor University of Parma
Enrollment 52 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Systemically healthy males and females e18 years old
- Willingness to read and sign a copy of the Informed Consent Form after reading the Patient Information Sheet, and after the nature of the study has been fully explained
- Clinical evidence of periodontitis, defined as the presence of interdental clinical attachment loss detectable at e2 non-adjacent teeth or buccal or oral clinical attachment loss e3mm with pocketing \>3 mm detectable at e2 teeth (Tonetti et al., 2018)
- Not having received subgingival instrumentation within the previous 12 months

Exclusion (7)

- Medical history that includes serious medical conditions or transmittable diseases (e.g. serious cardiovascular disease, organ transplant, renal failure, AIDS, viral etc.).
- Antibiotic, anti-inflammatory or anticoagulant therapy during the month preceding the baseline exam.
- In treatment with drugs that induce gingival overgrowth
- History of conditions requiring prophylactic antibiotic coverage prior to invasive dental procedures
- History of alcohol or drug abuse.
- ... and 2 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Centro Universitario di Odontoiatria, Parma, Italy