

Diagnosing Deep-vein Thrombosis Early in Critically Ill Patients

NCT05112705

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	King Abdullah International Medical Research Center
Enrollment	1,800 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Medical, surgical or trauma ICU patients ≥18 years old.
- Patients who are expected to stay in the ICU more than 2 calendar days (unlikely to be discharged out of ICU on the day of admission or on the next day).

Exclusion (9)

- Patients with DVT or PE diagnosed within the last year.
- Patients receiving chronic systemic anticoagulation.
- Patients who have received up to the time of ICU admission or are receiving therapeutic doses of anticoagulation with UFH, LMWH, or other anticoagulants.
- Inability or contraindication to obtain adequate ultrasound on the lower extremities (Burns in the lower extremities, lacerations, active skin infection, & ischemic limb in the legs, large dressings in the thighs that prevent adequate ultrasounds OR amputated foot or leg on one or two sides)
- Patients with Inferior Vena Cava (IVC) Filter.
- ... and 4 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

King Abdulaziz Medical City, Riyadh, Riyadh Region, Saudi Arabia