

Inherited Cardiac cONditions In Kids

NCT05158738

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor Imperial College London
Enrollment 300 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Males or females with a confirmed diagnosis of childhood onset (<16 years) PCM
- Males or females with childhood onset (<16 years) of a rare inherited cardiac condition likely to be a monogenic condition
- Capacity for parents to provide informed consent
- Genotype negative following local standard diagnostic ICC gene panel
- Family members of patients with ICC, both affected and unaffected

Exclusion (6)

- Parents who lack capacity to provide consent on behalf of their children/themselves
- Onset over 16 years
- Significant teratogen exposure (including maternal diabetes) likely to contribute to cardiac dysfunction (following discussion with Cardiologist)
- Significant coronary heart disease likely to contribute to cardiac dysfunction (following discussion with Cardiologist)
- Other secondary causes of cardiac dysfunction likely to explain the phenotype of the patient

... and 1 more (see full listing online)

Locations (3 total)

Royal Brompton Hospital, London, United Kingdom
Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children, London, United Kingdom
Harefield Hospital, Uxbridge, United Kingdom