

NIH Investigative Deep Phenotyping Study of Gulf War Veteran Health (Project NIH IN-DEPTH)

NCT05375812

Status	RECRUITING
Sponsor	National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke (NINDS)
Enrollment	85 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (8)

- Ability to provide informed consent
 - Stated willingness to comply with all study procedures and availability for the duration of the study
 - Age 48-70 at time of enrollment into VA IN-DEPTH Study
 - Veterans who were deployed to Gulf Region ODS/S between August 1990 - June 1991.
 - Self-reported completion of at least the seventh grade of school.
- ... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Exclusion (24)

- Current or past psychotic disorder including depression with psychosis, bipolar disorder with psychotic symptoms and schizophrenia
 - Current DSM-5-defined major depression disorder, generalized anxiety disorder, posttraumatic stress disorder, panic disorder, or obsessive-compulsive disorder unless managed for more than six months with a stable treatment regimen
 - Current or past substance use disorder within last five years as diagnosed on the Structured Clinical Interview for DSM-5 (SCID-5). Prior or prescription marijuana use within the past five years will not be an exclusion.
 - Current suicidal ideation
 - History of head injury leading to moderate or severe traumatic brain injury, as detailed by loss of consciousness for greater than 30 minutes, a Glasgow Coma Score of 12 or less at the time of injury, post-traumatic amnesia greater than one day, or brain-scan changes related to a head injury. Persons having a history of mild TBI (mTBI) will not be excluded.
- ... and 19 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

National Institutes of Health Clinical Center, Bethesda, Maryland, United States