

Olfactory Training As a Treatment for Olfactory Dysfunction Post COVID-19

NCT05384561

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières
Enrollment	70 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Patient diagnosed positive for COVID-19 with persistent olfactory dysfunction
- Willing and able to provide written informed consent
- Understand and read the French language
- Have an internet connection and a working email address

Exclusion (4)

- Anosmia and hyposmia pre-covid-19
- Be known chronic rhinosinusitis with or without nasal polyposis
- Have received radiotherapy or chemotherapy for Head and Neck Tumors
- Have a diagnosis of Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, multiple sclerosis or any other neurodegenerative disease 5. Have a brain tumor or ENT diagnosis 6. History of naso-sinus surgery; 7. History of traumatic brain injury

Locations (1 total)

Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières, Trois-Rivières, Quebec, Canada