

Central Executive Training and Parent Training for ADHD

NCT05492422

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Florida State University
Enrollment	200 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Children ages 8-12 with principal ADHD diagnoses (via K-SADS); and
- parent AND teacher ratings in clinical/borderline range based on age and sex on ADHD Rating Scale (ADHD-5) or Behavior Assessment Scale for Children (BASC-3) Attention Problems/Hyperactivity subscales (i.e., 90th percentile or higher based on both informants).
- All DSM-5 ADHD presentations will be eligible.

Exclusion (5)

- gross neurological, sensory, or motor impairment;
- history of seizure disorder, psychosis, bipolar, or severe dysregulation disorders that may interfere with participation (e.g., disruptive mood dysregulation, intermittent explosive, reactive attachment, substance use);
- intellectual disability or Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children (WISC-V) short-form standard score ≤ 70 ;
- conditions requiring acute intervention, e.g., active suicidality; and
- non-English speaking child or parent.

Locations (1 total)

Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida, United States