

Geriatric Transitional Care for Older Patients Discharged From the Emergency Department: Impact on Early Readmissions

NCT05814328

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Assistance Publique - Hôpitaux de Paris
Enrollment	1,322 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Patient admitted to the emergency department over 75 years old and living at home (including independent residence)
- Patient admitted to the Emergency Reception Service (ERS) for less than 48 hours for whom a return home has been decided
- Identified at risk of readmissions to the emergency department with a Triage Risk Screening Tool (TRST) score ≥ 2 .
- Consent to the study possible at the time of his visit to the emergency room by the patient or a caregiver present at the time of inclusion.
- Patient affiliated with a social security (beneficiary or partner)

Exclusion (7)

- Person living in a nursing home
- Severe cognitive impairment according to DSM V criteria and absence of a close relative at the time of inclusion
- Unstabilized psychiatric pathology and absence of relatives at the time of inclusion
- Language barrier and absence of relatives at the time of inclusion
- Person under guardianship, under legal safeguard measure, deprived of liberty by judicial or administrative decision, persons subject to psychiatric care without their consent, persons admitted to a health or social establishment for purposes other than those of the research

... and 2 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Bichat Hospital, Paris, France