

Developing a Support Application for Food Pantries (SAFPAS) to Improve Client Access to Healthy Foods & Enhance Emergency Preparedness

NCT05880004

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health
Enrollment	537 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Regular client of the food pantry (visit food pantry/order from one or more participating food pantries at least 1 time/month), for the past year, identified by food pantry personnel Adult (18 years or older)
- Willing and able to use a mobile app through a smart phone (or other device) for making electronic Choice (echoice) selections and engaging in other communications

Exclusion (4)

- Anticipate moving out of Baltimore in the next 12 months (for pilot study)
- Pregnant (due to changes in diet, weight and body composition)
- Medically or behaviorally at risk as indicated by the food pantry
- No access to a smart phone or other web-enabled device and Wi-Fi

Locations (1 total)

Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Maryland, United States