

Effect of Peri-Urethral Stimulation on Intra-Urethral Pressure

NCT05900570

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Corewell Health East
Enrollment	20 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Female aged 18 years old or older
- Capable of understanding the clinical study procedures and giving informed consent
- Willing and able to undergo the study procedure
- Diagnosis of SUI or stress predominant mixed incontinence, for at least 6 months
- Provided authorization to use and disclose information for research purposes

Exclusion (20)

- Predominant urge incontinence per patient report or medical record
- Active symptomatic uncontrolled bladder instability as determined by the investigator
- Regularly or intermittently used a urethral catheter
- Active bladder cancer (currently undergoing or scheduled to undergo treatment for bladder cancer).
- Previous radiation treatment in the pelvic floor

... and 15 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Corewell Health William Beaumont University Hospital, Royal Oak, Michigan, United States