

National Cohort on Congenital Defects of the Eye

NCT05954403

Status	RECRUITING
Sponsor	Institut National de la Santé Et de la Recherche Médicale, France
Enrollment	800 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (8)

- Newborns and/or children from birth to 7 years old, Children from 8 years old affected with the following ocular defects: anophthalmia, microphthalmia, aniridia or anterior segment dysgenesis.whose parents will have properly evaluated risks and benefits of the study and will be given an informed consent to participate the protocol.
- Patients affiliated to the "Régime National d'Assurance Maladie". Inclusion of foreign patients will be possible through the French inclusion centers when they agreed to be charged for all medical fees.
- Adults affected with the following ocular defects: anophthalmia, microphthalmia, aniridia or anterior segment dysgenesis
- Adult patients under guardianship whose guardians will have properly evaluated risks and benefits of the study and will be given an informed consent to participate the protocol. Indeed, intellectual disability may be associated with the ocular defects and we will need to include these patients in order to evaluate incidence of this event.
- Adult patients able to properly evaluate risks and benefits of the study and to give their informed consent to participate to the protocol.

... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

RaDiCo-ACOEIL, Paris, Île-de-France Region, France