

Inmobilization With Compression Bandage vs Antebraquial Splint in Distal Radius Fractures

NCT06019585

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Hospital Costa del Sol
Enrollment	120 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Patients with type A, B, C fractures of AO classification of distal radius fractures
- Patients aged between 18 and 75 years,
- Patients operated on in the first 3 weeks after the trauma, and independent for the basic activities of daily living

Exclusion (5)

- Patients with open fractures
- Patients with mental disorders (dementia, alcoholism, etc.),
- Patient dependent for basic activities of daily living
- Patients with fractures with severe articular and metaphyseal comminution and/or severe soft tissue injuries (type 2R3C3 AO),
- Patients with previous diseases or anatomical alterations in the injured wrist (previous fractures, rheumatoid arthritis, etc.).

Locations (2 total)

Hospital Reina Sofía, Córdoba, Spain
Hospital Costa del Sol, Málaga, Spain