

Effectiveness of Diaphragm Treatment in Reducing Low Back Pain

NCT06069388

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	University of Seville
Enrollment	68 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (4)

- Patient diagnosed with subacute or chronic mechanical low back pain by a specialist doctor and who has attended in "Fisioclinic" physiotherapy clinic.
- Older than 18 years-old.
- Indistinct sex.
- Diaphragm dysfunction.

Exclusion (13)

- Any surgical intervention on the upper and lower limbs, head, spine, thorax or abdomen at any time in their lives, with a visible anatomy cause on imaging tests.
  - Any pathology of non-mechanical origin, such as inflammatory, infectious, tumorous, neurological, traumatic processes and bone diseases in the lumbar spine.
  - Having received analgesic or anti-inflammatory medical treatment for pain in a period of less than two weeks.
  - Pregnant women, including the breastfeeding period.
  - Patients receiving chemotherapy or radiotherapy.
- ... and 8 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Juan Antonio Díaz-Mancha, Seville, Seville, Spain