

Duration of Immobilization After Reverse Total Arthroplasty for Proximal Humerus Fractures

NCT06133920

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor The Cooper Health System
Enrollment 40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Patients 60 years or older who have a displaced proximal humerus fracture
- Meets surgical criteria for a reverse total shoulder arthroplasty
- Receive surgical intervention within 6 weeks of initial injury

Exclusion (4)

- Patients <60 years in age
- Patients who cannot undergo surgery due to medical comorbidities
- Patients who receive surgical intervention after 6 weeks from initial injury
- Patients who have preoperative nerve damage from their fractures that would limit the ability to move the arm postoperatively

Locations (1 total)

Cooper University Hospital, Camden, New Jersey, United States