

Does Sexual Intercourse Affect the Outcomes of Frozen-thawed Embryo Transfer?

NCT06134609

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Sheba Medical Center
Enrollment	656 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Women age 18-41yrs.
- BMI (body mass index) of 18-35 kg/m².
- Patients undergoing one of their first four frozen embryo transfers.
- Patients transferring a good quality embryo, either a cleavage stage embryo or a day 5 blastocyst.

Exclusion (5)

- Patients age above 42.
- Moderate or poor-quality embryos.
- Patients with hydrosalpinx or uterus malformations.
- Patients who are not able or are not interested in having vaginal intercourse (same sex couples for example).
- Couples undergoing preimplantation genetic diagnosis when natural cycle frozen embryo transfer is planned (as they are instructed to avoid intercourse).

Locations (1 total)

Sheba Medical Center, Ramat Gan, Israel