

Effects of the COTID (Community Occupational Therapist in Dementia) Program and Usual Occupational Therapy Care on Recurrence of Falls at 12 Months in Elderly People With Neurocognitive Disorders Who Had Been Hospitalized for Falls, After Their Return Home

NCT06237218

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	University Hospital, Limoges
Enrollment	76 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (8)

- Male or female, at least 75 years old
 - Living at home (excluding nursing home or long-term care facilities)
 - Hospitalized for fall
 - Presenting major mild to moderate dementia (MMSE \geq 16)
 - Accompanied by a caregiver with sufficient presence to meet study procedures: at investigator's discretion at the investigator's discretion
- ... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Exclusion (10)

- With serious, life-threatening pathology(ies) or in palliative care
 - Participating in an educational fall program on the theme of falls, run by an occupational therapist by an occupational therapist
 - Receiving regular occupational therapy treatment on the day of inclusion (day care daily hospitalization)
 - Participating in a clinical research protocol have an impact on the occurrence of a fall (at the investigator's discretion)
 - Not matching with the fall definition from Kellogg's definition of a fall (loss of consciousness, sudden onset of paralysis paralysis or epileptic seizure)
- ... and 5 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Chu Limoges, Limoges, France