

Concentrated Bone Marrow Aspirate in Revision ACL Reconstruction

NCT06311513

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 4
Sponsor	Hospital for Special Surgery, New York
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Males and Females
- Age 18 to 55
- Previous unilateral ACLR (Anterior Cruciate Ligament Reconstruction) within the last 5 years, and identified as having experienced failure of the primary ACLR
- Scheduled to have a revision ACLR surgery, with any graft type (including patellar tendon, hamstring, quad or allograft)
- Able to complete all study procedures and participate in a standardized physical therapy program

Exclusion (8)

- History of inflammatory arthritis or joint sepsis
 - Prior or concurrent total or sub-total meniscectomy
 - Prior or present avascular necrosis of the index knee
 - Oral or intra-articular corticosteroid injection within 3 months
 - Hyaluronic acid or PRP (Platelet-Rich Plasma) injection within 6 months
- ... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Locations (2 total)

Emory Orthopaedics & Spine Center, Atlanta, Georgia, United States
Hospital for Special Surgery, New York, New York, United States