

Evaluating Use of Topical Imipramine and Amitriptyline in Reducing Ultraviolet B Light-Induced Redness in Patients With Rosacea

NCT06312813

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 2
Sponsor	Wright State University
Enrollment	48 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (3)

- Fitzpatrick Skin Type I - IIII
- Self-identified rosacea or no history of flushing/blushing for controls
- Able to provide medical history and list of medications -- control subjects will not be allowed to take medications that are known to be photosensitizers.

Exclusion (6)

- Using imipramine, amitriptyline or any other tricyclic antidepressant (oral or topical)
- Using topical anti-inflammatory (within 1 week) or systemic agents (e.g. prednisone)
- Large tattoos in the designated testing areas
- Tanning bed use within last 3 months
- Photodynamic Therapy or UCB treatments in past 3 months
- ... and 1 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Wright State Physicians, Fairborn, Ohio, United States