

UTERINE EVALUATION FOR THE IDENTIFICATION OF PATHOLOGY. This Study Will Compare the Intrauterine Pathology Detection Rate Between Standard of Care Hydrosonography, and a New Visual Saline Infusion Device Providing Direct Visualization of the Uterus.

NCT06394752

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Center for Reproductive Health & Gynecology
Enrollment	100 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (2)

- Patients requiring a uterine cavity evaluation
- Premenopausal women between ages of 18-45

Exclusion (3)

- \. Positive test or history of any of the following conditions:
  - a. Chlamydial pelvic infection
  - b. Gonorrheal pelvic infection. 2. Positive Pregnancy Test 3. IUD currently in place

Locations (2 total)

---

Center for Reproductive Health & Gynecology, Beverly Hills, California, United States
Punta Mita Fertility Center, Corral Del Risco, Nayarit, Mexico