

A Trial to Compare Nebulized Amphotericin B and Nebulized Normal Saline as Maintenance in Patients With Chronic Pulmonary Aspergillosis

NCT06447402

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 3
Sponsor	Post Graduate Institute of Medical Education and Research, Chandigarh
Enrollment	196 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (1)

- consecutive subjects with CPA who have received 12 months therapy with oral itraconazole

Exclusion (1)

- (i) failure to provide informed consent; (ii) patients on immunosuppressive drugs, intake of >10 mg prednisolone (or equivalent) for at least 3 weeks in last 3 months, or a diagnosis of human immunodeficiency virus syndrome, ; (iii) subjects with active pulmonary infection due to mycobacterium tuberculosis or mycobacteria other than tuberculosis (MOTT); (iv) subjects with others forms of pulmonary aspergillosis (subacute and acute invasive aspergillosis); (v) pregnancy.

Locations (1 total)

Chest clinic, Chandigarh, India