

Indobufen Versus aspirin After Coronary Drug-eluting Stent implantation in Elderly Patients With Acute Coronary Syndrome

NCT06451198

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 4
Sponsor	Shanghai Zhongshan Hospital
Enrollment	2,846 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Age over 65 years old
- Diagnosed with acute coronary syndrome (unstable angina/ non-ST elevation myocardial infarction/ ST elevation myocardial infarction)
- Treated with at least 1 DES implanted in the coronary lesion
- Receiving dual antiplatelet therapy (aspirin plus ticagrelor)
- Agree to attend the trial

Exclusion (12)

- Elective surgical procedure planned within 12 months
- Life expectancy < 1 year
- Known allergy or intolerance to aspirin, ticagrelor or nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs)
- History of cerebral hemorrhage
- History of stroke in six months
- ... and 7 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Zhongshan Hospital Fudan University, Shanghai, Shanghai Municipality, China