

Effect of Apical Patency and Local Corticosteroid on Pain and Neuropeptides Release in Patients With Symptomatic Irreversible Pulpitis: A Randomized Clinical Trial

NCT06457828

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Suez Canal University
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Symptomatic acute irreversible pulpitis in molar teeth.
- Normal periapical condition including periapical radiography with minimal widening of periodontal ligament.
- Normal probing depth.
- No medical condition.
- No contraindication for administration of corticosteroids and local anesthesia.

Exclusion (9)

- Facial or oral paresthesia.
- Pregnancy & breastfeeding.
- Unrestorable tooth.
- Marginal periodontal disease.
- Presence of a crown on the tooth involved.

... and 4 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Suez Canal University, Ismailia, Egypt