

Management of Postspinal Anesthesia Hypotension During Elective Cesarean Section: Baby Norepinephrine Versus Ephedrine

NCT06498076

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Hopital Charles Nicolle
Enrollment	126 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (1)

- Singleton full-term consenting pregnant females of ASA grade II, aged 18-38 years, scheduled for elective cesarean section under spinal anesthesia

Exclusion (2)

- Any parturient falling in the category ASA grade III and IV, contraindications to spinal anesthesia, preeclampsia, chronic hypertension, comorbidity with diabetes mellitus, cardiovascular disorders and psychiatric illness are non included.
- They are excluded the case of failure of spinal anesthesia, conversion to general anesthesia, post-partum bleeding, and failure to follow protocol.

Locations (1 total)

Charles Nicolle Hospital, Tunis, Tunisia