

Mechanism-based Therapy of Hypotensive Syncope

NCT06513650

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor Istituto Auxologico Italiano
Enrollment 140 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Patients >18-year-old with a clinical diagnosis of severe, recurrent reflex syncope, refractory to education and life-style measures (according to the criteria of ESC guidelines) AND a diagnosis of hypotensive syncope defined as:
- Persistent or intermittent hypotension during 24-hour ABPM (ABPM1) AND/OR
- Reproduction of syncope during the Short Cardiovascular Autonomic Function Assessment (SCAFA) that consists in carotid sinus massage (CSM), 3-min active stand test, and head-up tilt test (TT) performed one after another in an uninterrupted sequence as a single procedure in a tilt table.
- Clinical indication to deprescribing of antihypertensive drugs or to prescribing of fludrocortisone therapy, as appropriate, according to the clinical practice of the investigator

Exclusion (1)

- -

Locations (9 total)

University of marseille Aix en Provence, Marseille, France
IRCCS Istituto Auxologico Italiano, Milan, MI, Italy
IRCCS Istituto Auxologico Italiano, Milan, MI, Italy
... and 6 more locations