

Mechanisms of Improving Fecal Continence Muscles Motor Function

NCT06532123

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Medical College of Wisconsin
Enrollment	340 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (2)

- Healthy volunteers without past or present history of fecal incontinence
- Patients age 18 years and older with reduced anal resting and or squeeze pressure, reflecting weakness of the anal sphincters who can perform the study

Exclusion (11)

- Any one less than 18 years old
- Neurological disorders like dementia, cerebrovascular diseases
- Muscle diseases like muscular dystrophy, myopathies
- Inflammatory bowel disease or celiac disease
- Neuro-muscular junction disorders/myasthenia gravis, Eaton-Lambert syndrome
- ... and 6 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Medical College of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, United States