

Immersive v/s Non-immersive Virtual Reality in Enhancing Upper Limb Functions Among Individuals With Subacute Stage Hemiplegia

NCT06615141

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Gulf Medical University
Enrollment	30 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Individuals aged 28-55 years.
- Diagnosed with hemiplegia due to stroke.
- dGrade 2 on Modified Ashworth scale.
- dStage 2 on Brunnstrom stages of motor recovery.
- Score of e 35/36 on Cognitive assessment scale for stroke patients (CASP)

Exclusion (2)

- Contraindications for VR therapy, such as severe motion sickness or photosensitive epilepsy, impaired spatial awareness.
- Pre-existing neurological conditions such as spinal cord injury, Multiple sclerosis and so affecting upper limb function.

Locations (1 total)

Thumbay Physical Therapy and Rehabilitation Hospital, Ajman, United Arab Emirates