

Efficacy of a Potassium Nitrate Containing Herbal Mouthwash to a Potassium Oxalate Mouthwash in Dentinal Hypersensitivity

NCT06627790

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Phase 3
Sponsor	Dr. D. Y. Patil Dental College & Hospital
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Participants with at least two DH sites with VAS score e4
- Participants with teeth showing cervical abrasion, erosion, gingival recession
- Participants >18 years in general good health
- Participants self-reporting with history of dentinal hypersensitivity to various stimuli.
- Participants with minimum 20 natural teeth

Exclusion (7)

- Teeth with severe caries, faulty restoration, prosthetic crown, chipping, fracture, symptoms of pulpal damage
- Participants who has taken long term analgesic therapy within 30 days before the start of the study
- Participants who have undergone any treatment for dentinal hypersensitivity in past 3 months
- Participants with ongoing orthodontic therapy
- Participants with history or presence kidney disorder, kidney stones, eating disorders, uncontrolled gastro-oesophageal reflux disease, excessive exposure to acids or any other systemic condition that predisposes to dentinal hypersensitivity
- ... and 2 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Dr. D Y Patil dental College and Hospital, Pimpri, Pune, Pune, Maharashtra, India