

Acupuncture for Post COVID-19 Condition (Long COVID) Neuropsychiatric Symptoms

NCT06633666

| | |
|------------|------------------------------|
| Status | RECRUITING |
| Phase | Not Applicable |
| Sponsor | Hong Kong Baptist University |
| Enrollment | 160 participants |

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- meet the clinical diagnosis of Long COVID by the World Health Organization (WHO), with no neuropsychiatric symptoms 1 year before infection with Covid-19, and continue to have at least one neuropsychiatric symptom for 2 months after SARS-CoV-2 turned negative 3 months above;
- aged 12 to 80 years;
- willing and able to consent, and complete all assessment and study procedures

Exclusion (12)

- patients with a history of chronic neuropsychiatric symptoms;
- cardiovascular diseases pre-existing to the Covid-19 episode such as arrhythmia, heart failure, myocardial infarction, and patients with cardiac pacemakers;
- documented pre-existing history of psychiatric illness, including substance abuse;
- suicidal tendencies (attempted suicide in the 12 months before the study);
- any chronic or remote neurological disorder (i.e. stroke, head trauma, epilepsy, tumor);
- ... and 7 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Linda Zhong, Kowloon Tong, Kowloon, Hong Kong