

Stress Urinary Incontinence and Sarcopenia in Postmenopausal Osteoporosis

NCT06655701

Status	RECRUITING
Sponsor	Beylikduzu State Hospital
Enrollment	100 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Postmenopausal women with DXA measurements performed within the last 6 months.
- Based on DXA measurements:
- Femoral neck and L1-L4 T-scores of -1 and above will be included in the control group (non-osteoporotic).
- Femoral neck and L1-L4 T-scores of -2.5 and below will be included in the osteoporosis group.
- Aged 50-75 years

Exclusion (5)

- Refusal to participate in the study.
- History of neurological diseases, infections, surgeries, or trauma that could cause urinary incontinence or muscle loss.
- Presence of psychiatric disorders.
- Cognitive impairments.
- Use of medications that could affect the study results.

Locations (1 total)

Beylikdüzü State Hospital, Istanbul, Turkey (Türkiye)