

Psychological Factors and Pain in Orthopedic Surgery Patients

NCT06707363

| | |
|------------|-------------------------|
| Status | RECRUITING |
| Sponsor | Jagiellonian University |
| Enrollment | 170 participants |

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- age: participants aged 18 years or older;
- surgical procedures: individuals scheduled to undergo either emergency or elective orthopedic surgeries, including but not limited to joint replacements (e.g., hip or knee arthroplasty) and fracture repairs;
- time after operation: undergoing orthopedic surgery up to 72 hours before the psychological examination;
- informed consent: ability to provide informed consent and willingness to participate in the study;
- language proficiency: proficiency in the language of the questionnaires used in the study (Polish).

Exclusion (1)

- psychiatric disorders: diagnosed psychiatric disorders (e.g., severe depression, anxiety disorders) that are not managed or stable.

Locations (2 total)

Stefan {eromski Specialist Hospital in Krakow, Department of Orthopedic and Trauma Surgery, Krakow, Malopolska, Poland
Stefan {eromski Specialist Hospital, Krakow, Malopolska, Poland