

Mainstreaming a Life Skills Education Programme Right to Play- Plus to Reduce Violence Against Girls in Pakistan

NCT06777849

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Aga Khan University
Enrollment	3,000 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Schools will be chosen from District Malir and adjacent areas, including Korangi and East Karachi. Among the 100 selected schools, the following distribution will be maintained: 40 girls-only schools (public), 40 co-ed schools (private), and 20 boys-only schools (public).
- Schools having a minimum of 30 students enrolled in grade 6
- Private schools with low to medium fees, with monthly amounts ranging from PKR 2000 to 3500.
- Factors such as teacher availability, school management support, accessibility to research and intervention partners, and school clustering will also be considered for the selection of these hundred schools.
- Schools' willingness to adapt child protection and safeguarding/anti-harassment administrative measures and policies to improve school safety, reduce the use of corporal punishment, enhance school performance, and increase girls' retention rates, primarily apply to private schools.

Exclusion (1)

- Schools where Right to Play or Aahung have already implemented their play-based/other activities.

Locations (2 total)

Korangi, Karachi, Sindh, Pakistan
Malir, Karachi, Sindh, Pakistan