

Efficacy of Ultrasound-Guided Needle Knife Release for Trigger Finger

NCT06788860

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Mohamed Maher Ismail Ahmed Elashmawy
Enrollment	46 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Idiopathic TF at the level of A1 pulley
- Trigger finger of Green's grades II or III or IV (moderate to severe)
- Symptoms persist for at least three months despite conservative treatments.
- Ability to provide informed consent and comply with follow-up requirements.

Exclusion (6)

- Patients with secondary causes of TF like diabetes mellitus, rheumatoid arthritis, gout, hypothyroidism, amyloidosis, and sarcoidosis.
- Patients with TF of Green's grade I.
- Previous surgical intervention on the affected digit.
- Allergy or contraindication to local anesthetics.
- Pregnancy or lactation.
- ... and 1 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Mansoura University Hospital, Al Mansurah, Dakahlia Governorate, Egypt