

Sensory Tests of Cigarettes for Identification of Flavors in Current Daily Smoking Adults

NCT06816459

---

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Early Phase 1
Sponsor	Roswell Park Cancer Institute
Enrollment	30 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

---

Inclusion (4)

- Aged 21-55 years old
- Current daily smoker of factory-made menthol cigarettes
- General good health (assessed by self-rated health item)
- Completion of Brief Smell Identification Test (B-SIT) with no identification of deficits

Exclusion (7)

- Daily concurrent use of other tobacco products (e.g., e-cigarettes, cigars, smokeless tobacco)
- Known allergies to mint (peppermint, spearmint), menthol
- Self-reported olfactory or taste deficits
- Pregnant or nursing participants, as indicated by self-report
- History of medications known to interfere with sense of smell
- ... and 2 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

---

Roswell Park Cancer Institute, Buffalo, New York, United States