

The Effect of a Music Intervention on Postictal Agitation in Electroconvulsive Therapy Patients

NCT06817330

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Erasmus Medical Center
Enrollment	92 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Patients undergoing ECT treatment for depression (including depression as part of bipolar disorder)
- Adult patients (≥18 years)
- Hypnotic agent used is etomidate
- Sufficient understanding of the Dutch language (in judgement of the attending physician or researcher)
- Written informed consent by patient or legal representative

Exclusion (3)

- Significant impaired hearing (defined as unable to communicate verbally or listen to music)
- Severe neurological condition (defined as interfering with the ability to process music)
- Patients receiving ECT for treatment of schizophrenic disorders

Locations (2 total)

Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, Netherlands
Antes Parnassia Group, Rotterdam, Netherlands