

Post-Procedural Manual Manipulation for Infant Ankyloglossia

NCT06830148

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Georgetown University
Enrollment	110 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (1)

- infants less than 90 days old with ankyloglossia who undergo outpatient frenotomy using cold-steel scissors and will be exclusively or partially breastfed.

Exclusion (2)

- infants older than 90 days, those who will be exclusively bottle fed, infants who undergo concomitant lip tie release, those who undergo laser frenotomy, and infants who have previously undergone a frenotomy.
- infants with a gestational age of less than 36 weeks, those in the NICU or post-partum unit, infants who didn't receive the vitamin K injection, and those with congenital anomalies or medical conditions affecting breastfeeding

Locations (1 total)

MedStar Georgetown University Hospital, Department of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, Washington D.C., District of Columbia, United States