

Assessing the Impact of Additional Serratus Anterior Block Within 24-Hour on Postoperative Pain After Rhomboid Intercostal Block in VATS Patients

NCT06838039

| | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| Status | RECRUITING |
| Phase | Not Applicable |
| Sponsor | Al-Quds University |
| Enrollment | 50 participants |

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (4)

- Adults aged 18-70 years.
- Patients undergoing Video-Assisted Thoracoscopic Surgery (VATS).
- Classified as ASA physical status I-III (low to moderate surgical risk).
- Ability to provide informed consent and follow study protocols.

Exclusion (8)

- Known allergy or hypersensitivity to local anesthetics.
- Presence of bleeding disorders or anticoagulant use.
- History of chronic opioid use or opioid dependence.
- Anatomical abnormalities or conditions preventing the application of regional anesthesia (e.g., chest wall deformities).
- Presence of neurological disorders affecting pain perception.

... and 3 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Al Ahli hospital, Hebron, Palestinian Territories