

Exploring the Acute and Dynamic Relationships Between Movement and Pain in Older Adults With Musculoskeletal Pain

NCT06886906

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Indiana University
Enrollment	40 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Community-dwelling men and women
- Answer yes to the following question: Have you experienced any musculoskeletal pain (pain affecting joints, bones, ligaments, tendons or muscles) in the past month?

Exclusion (9)

- Cardiovascular issues such as uncontrolled blood pressure over 150/99 mmHg, heart failure, or history of acute myocardial infarction;
- Angina in the last month (squeezing, pressure, heaviness, tightness, or pain in chest)
- Serious systemic disease or condition (e.g., severe osteoarthritis, injury) that restricts normal daily activities
- Neurological disease (e.g., Parkinson's Disease, multiple sclerosis, epilepsy)
- Serious psychiatric conditions (schizophrenia, bipolar disorder) or hospitalization within the preceding year for psychiatric illness
- ... and 4 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

250 University Blvd, Indianapolis, Indiana, United States