

High and Low Intensity Speech Intervention in Children With a Cleft Palate: Perceptions of Children, Their Caregivers and Speech-language Pathologists

NCT06895395

Status RECRUITING
Sponsor University Ghent
Enrollment 175 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (3)

- Belgian Dutch-speaking children with a cleft palate with or without a cleft lip
- Aged between 4 and 12 years,
- Presence of at least one compensatory speech error in their speech based on the perceptual assessment of one experienced speech-language pathologist

Exclusion (5)

- Children with syndromic clefts
- Oronasal fistula
- Velopharyngeal insufficiency
- Hearing disabilities based on pure tone audiometry (≥ 25 dB HL)
- Cognitive and/or related learning disabilities or neuromuscular disorders

Locations (1 total)

Ghent University Hospital, Ghent, Belgium