

The Impact of Immersive Virtual Reality Training in Thyroid Surgery

NCT06917755

| | |
|-------------------|-------------------------------|
| Status | RECRUITING |
| Phase | Not Applicable |
| Sponsor | G.Gennimatas General Hospital |
| Enrollment | 12 participants |

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Residents of the 2nd Surgical Department of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
- Residents who have completed their 1st year of training program.

Exclusion (5)

- Disagreement of participants' randomisation
- Prolonged surgical time of completion
- Participant's experience beyond the included limits
- Participants who are completely incapable of using VR devices or have specific health restrictions of using these
- Patients with complex thyroid disease such as recurrent disease, concomitant primary hyperparathyroidism, lymph node disease or metastasis, Graves disease and intrathoracic goiter

Locations (1 total)

"Georgios Gennimatas" General Hospital of Thessaloniki, Thessaloniki, Greece