

Comparing the Efficacy of Lyophilized Self Growth Factor Versus PRP Injection for Knee OA

NCT06932614

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Tri-Service General Hospital
Enrollment	90 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (5)

- Male or female, aged over 20 and under 80.
- Consciousness clear and able to communicate.
- Unilateral or bilateral osteoarthritis of the knee with symptoms lasting more than 3 months.
- X-ray imaging shows mild to moderate knee osteoarthritis (Kellgren-Lawrence grades 1-3).
- Knee joint pain with a Visual Analogue Scale (VAS) score greater than 4.

Exclusion (12)

- Severe knee osteoarthritis (Kellgren-Lawrence grade 4).
- Currently systemic infection.
- Received hyaluronic acid or corticosteroid intraarticular injections within the past six months, or received NSAIDs or oral corticosteroid treatment within 7 days prior to treatment.
- The treated joint has undergone joint replacement surgery or major surgery.
- Severe knee deformity or instability.
- ... and 7 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

No. 325, Sec. 2, Chenggong Rd., Neihu Dist., Taipei, Taiwan