

Evaluation of Selective and Stepwise Excavation in Young Permanent Teeth With Deep Caries Lesions.

NCT06944028

Status	RECRUITING
Phase	Not Applicable
Sponsor	Karolinska Institutet
Enrollment	666 participants

Key Eligibility Criteria

Inclusion (2)

- Children aged 8- 19 years (last December the year they turn 19 years) A fully erupted molar or pre-molar teeth with dental caries (class I or class II) extending to more than 2/3 of the dentine thickness (and on the bitewing radiograph showing a radiodense zone separating the pulp from the demineralized dentine).
- Bitewing radiograph has been taken as part of the ordinary dental examination Available for recall at least for 1 year.

Exclusion (10)

- Extraction is planned of the tooth with deep caries in the future with expected spontaneous gap closure.
 - If the carious tooth shows sign or symptoms of irreversible pulp pathology or loss of vitality including:
 - Presence of a sinus tract (fistula)
 - Tenderness to percussion
 - Buccal tenderness
- ... and 5 more (see full listing online)

Locations (1 total)

Folktandvården Stockholm, Stockholm, Sweden